SECTION SUMMARY

I hope you got a lot of value out of this section. This is going to be a key component to your success. It does no good to buy a camera to learn how to shoot and to edit, real estate photography, without having customers.

HOMEWORK

Your homework from this section of the course is to make contact with 100, local real estate agents and start having one on one conversations with them with the ultimate goal to convert them into paying customers.
